

Marcelo Gerjoi

Dr. Gerjoi joined the Department of Physician Assistant Studies at the University of South Alabama as an Assistant Professor in September 2025. He brings eight years of specialized clinical experience spanning Orthopedic Spine, Orthopedic Trauma, and Neurosurgery, having spent the majority of his clinical career serving patients at USA Health's Level 1 Trauma Center.

As an active U.S. Army Reservist with over 15 years of service, Dr. Gerjoi began his military career as an enlisted Combat Medic and currently serves as a Captain in a Mobile, Alabama-based Medical Support Unit. He earned a B.S. in Organizational Communication from Kennesaw State University (2002) and holds a Doctor of Chiropractic degree from Life University (2007) in his hometown of Marietta, Georgia. He subsequently completed his Physician Assistant training through the U.S. Military Interservice Physician Assistant Program (IPAP), accredited by the University of Nebraska Medical Center, graduating in 2017.

As an educator, Dr. Gerjoi is deeply committed to the program's mission of preparing future physician assistants who are clinically competent, adaptable, compassionate, and equipped to meet the evolving healthcare needs of the communities they serve.
